

NiRo EB Ghost

We take all of these pictures, some prove of having too many feelings. A photograph of an Immortelle love. I'm letting your emotions creep in.

Disgusting, all my heart is gone. Can you hear my crying? I struggle to feel, this pain is real. And without you, I am trying.

I'm desperate to smile, I'm lost in a world. And without you, I am trying. Sometimes a heart, just feels so much pain.

That in the end, you can feel it no more. You make me feel completely ignored. But you're the one, you're the one that I'll always adore.

Disgusting, all my heart is gone. Can you hear my crying? I struggle to feel, this pain is real. And without you, I am trying.

I'm desperate to smile, I'm lost in a world. And without you, I am trying. The angels watch you, in this empty hall.

Take a sip of tea, and you will never be alone. I'm desperate to smile, I'm lost in a world. And without you, I am trying.

I'm desperate to smile, I'm lost in a world. And without you, I am trying. For your pain, I've told you I'm sorry, for so many times.

And I'm depending on God again. Disgusting, all my heart is gone. Can you hear my crying? I struggle to feel, this pain is real.

And without you, I am trying. I'm desperate to smile, I'm lost in a world. And without you, I am trying.

Disgusting, all my heart is gone. Can you hear my crying? I struggle to feel, this pain is real. And without you, I am trying.

I'm desperate to smile, I'm lost in a world. And without you, I am trying. Will you try?
