

NiRo MG-Hey-Now-!

Music Work all day but your mind is tight My aching body says no sleep at night Got to quit my job and leave this town But I don't wanna be a gambling girl I take the change as the game still starts Trying to find my way and follow my heart Got to see the things more clearly now Don't be no dreamer anymore Hey now, don't you think you should stop beating me down If you don't wanna have me around Just say a word and I'm gone Hey now, don't you think you should stop beating me down If you don't wanna have me around Just say a word and I'm gone Hear my song doesn't sound it right Should love be good rather than a fight Got to change my ways and leave this town But I don't look for harm Hey now, don't you think you should stop beating me down If you don't wanna have me around Just say a word and I'm gone Hey now, don't you think you should stop beating me down If you don't wanna have me around Just say a word and I'm gone And people say love is beat up and down It's like a road across the rain Hear my song doesn't sound it right And we'll rise again but it's dark In the night You should stop beating me down If you don't wanna have me around Just say a word and I'm gone Hey now, don't you think you should stop beating me down If you don't wanna have me around Just say a word and I'm gone Hey now, don't you think you should stop beating me down If you don't wanna have me around Just say a word and I'm gone Just say a word and I'm gone
