

NiRo MG-Higher

Higher and higher, it's just like a fire, just like a whisper in the wind, It's telling me I've got to live, afraid to see the ashes of a love, still I'm struggling to say goodbye. Higher and higher, until I burn my wings, it's just like a fire, burning me up. It's so precious to get lost, but I've got to let it go, and I will do it for your sake, I'm starting to know that I have to go, yeah, now I know that I have to go.

Higher and higher, until I burn my wings, it's just like a fire, burning me up. Higher and higher, until I touch the sky, it's just like a fire, burning me up. Find a world to start inside, there's a dream, oh yeah, that's bright.

Who's to blame? Oh, I can tell, but I'll leave with a heavy heart. Higher and higher, until I burn my wings, it's just like a fire, burning me up. Higher and higher, until I touch the sky, it's just like a fire, burning me up.

Higher and higher, just like a fire, higher and higher, just like a fire, burning me up.
