

NiRo MR-Light-My-Fire

Light my fire, lift me higher, take me back to earth and hold me tight. Light my fire, lift me higher, take me back to earth and hold me tight. You take me as I am, finally learn to let go.

For once I trust, I believe in you, expecting nothing, feeling good. I am in security when I am weak, but I don't have to act because you do. Light my fire, lift me higher, take me back to earth and hold me tight.

Light my fire, lift me higher, take me back to earth and hold me tight. Is it my heart? Is it my soul? Nothing I can control. Is it my mind? I'm being blind, but I left all my keys behind.

I am in security when I am weak, but I don't have to act because you do. Light my fire, lift me higher, take me back to earth and hold me tight. Light my fire, lift me higher, take me back to earth and hold me tight.
