

NiRo UW-Love-Will-Come-Alive

As I was yearning as me, you just knocked me off my feet. You say, why can't love come overnight? As we got this brilliant open right, now my mind flies over clouds, that's why my heart is out of hand. What a crazy mess, electrify is this, cause it's no game of, energy, energy, it's magic.

I've come this far to wait, no rushing in today, now it's your turn, set my shot, wanna die? I let go, trust the goal, love will come alive. We know there's no love at first sight, though we got this brilliant open right, now my mind flies over clouds, that's why my heart is out of hand. What a crazy mess, electrify is this, cause it's no game of, energy, energy, it's magic.

I've come this far to wait, no rushing in today, now it's your turn, set my shot, wanna die? I let go, love will come alive. It's hard to trust as I sway, you build me up when you say, should you doubt lies above, you can't hurry love, you can't hurry love. Instrumental I let go, love will come alive.

Love's a crazy mess, emotional madness, pure happiness, pure happiness. Love's a crazy mess, emotional madness, pure happiness. Yabba-dee-dee, ba-doo-ba-dee-doo.
