Before we even start, don't gamble with my heart, let me tell you. Cause I've been hurt before, don't need this anymore, I assure you. But, I am afraid I will forget, all that I promised to myself.

When the night is through, I'll be loving you. One night in Monte Carlo, I'm ready for tomorrow. The luck can come and borrow, a night in Monte Carlo.

We will rise from the memories of our past. We can be, all we want if there's love left. The way you throw your dice, one step from paradise, you can't hide it.

Casino of romance, garlic while they dance, let's go try it. But, I am afraid I will forget, all that I promised to myself. When the night is through, I'll be loving you.
