

NiRo HB-Open-Your-Eyes

Rain is falling on your hill, you're walking down the street. You look straight to the ground, it's why you don't sleep. The sun shines as well, but you just see the reflected light of the rainbow in its splendour, and you can hardly wait for tonight.

Just open your eyes, and you're gonna have a good time. Have a good time. All you gotta do is open your eyes, and you're gonna have a good time.

Have a good time. And I, you know what you do. Try to see the moon, dare to make a simple start.

Don't be afraid of the sunlight, even though it might be hard. Have a seat and join the show, just give it a try. Soak the seeds and let them grow, but don't lose yourself in time.

Just open your eyes, and you're gonna have a good time. Have a good time. All you gotta do is open your eyes, and you're gonna have a good time.

Have a good time. And I, you know what you do. Just try to do is open your eyes, and you're gonna have a good time.

Have a good time. And I, you know what you do.
