

NiRo UG-Peace-Again

It was a time of peace deep in the earth. And every man was faced to die. And I look around, just what the man has lost his faith.

He knows not where he's gone. There's coming a chance. There'll be peace again.

For thousands, thousands behind him. Kingdom on his side. He wakes up to see.

It's the dawning of Aquarius. He starts to search himself. And the sense of life on earth.

You find his faith again. To believe in where he's from. That will be faced to God.

There's coming a chance. There'll be peace again. For thousands, thousands behind him.

Kingdom on his side. There's coming a chance. There'll be peace again.

For thousands, thousands behind him. Kingdom on his side. There's coming a chance.

There'll be peace again. For thousands, thousands behind him. Kingdom on his side.

There's coming a chance. There'll be peace again. For thousands, thousands behind him.

Kingdom on his side. There's coming a chance. There'll be peace again.

For thousands, thousands behind him. Kingdom on his side.
