

NiRo HB-Saviour

Losing my mind, needs all the force. And I gotta find, my last resort. When I'm lost in a crowd, of running creatures.

Heavy rain, thunderclouds, face us with no features. It's gonna be my saviour, it's gonna be my saviour, it's gonna be my saviour. Misbehaving, misbehaving, misbehaving.

I got carried away, by a flawed emotion. Got nothing left to say, can't afford to show that emotion. My body follows the crowd, but my soul wants to stay.

It's screaming out loud, don't go away. It's gonna be my saviour, it's gonna be my saviour, it's gonna be my saviour. When I'm lost in, lost in, misbehaving.

Well it is all I do to dream, well it is more than like a nightmare. Nothing else to talk about, and nothing else to compare. Don't know how to move along, and someone's gotta show my way.

Need anybody back up. It's gonna be my saviour, it's gonna be my saviour, it's gonna be my saviour. It's gonna be my saviour.

When I'm lost in, lost in, misbehaving. When I'm lost in, lost in, misbehaving.
