

NiRo EB-Scorpio

Oh yeah, to make you believe, so dear If your daddy grows up, you better watch your back Born in November, with a sang in her tail She said use you, don't lie to you, but cover her trail You spend your life trying to please her She's a Scorpio, she'll pull you in with a charm Then she'll leave you feeling cold when you're out on the run She's a Scorpio, only rides with the sinners Doesn't care about you, only kisses the winner She's your best friend, your best enemy too She'll cut you, then heal you, and promise she's true You fall for her stories, because you carry sins Her blue eyes, her sweet kiss, and her magical tricks You spend your life trying to please her Then you figure her out, but she won't let you leave her She's a Scorpio, she'll pull you in with a charm Then she'll leave you feeling cold when you're out on the run She's a Scorpio, only rides with the sinners Doesn't care about you, only kisses the winner She's a Scorpio, she'll pull you in with a charm Then she'll leave you feeling cold when you're out on the run She says she'll be there, no matter what But in your hour of need, you'll find out she's not She'll listen to the ringing phone, but she won't answer She'll laugh as you cry, she'll make you swallow her cancer You spend your life trying to please her Then you figure her out, but she won't let you leave her She's a Scorpio, she'll pull you in with a charm Then she'll leave you feeling cold when you're out on the run She's a Scorpio, only rides with the sinners Doesn't care about you, only kisses the winner She's a Scorpio, she'll pull you in with a charm Then she'll leave you feeling cold when you're out on the run She's a Scorpio, only rides with the sinners Doesn't care about you, only kisses the winner
