

NiRo PK-Boy-To-A-Man

To the ones you love, to the things you believe There is a boy who carries the hopes of his whole family He is young but he is strong for his age And so he shows it happily He has a quick mind and a true voice A clear eye and a tough choice He knows where he belongs And in his heart there is a song He longs to right the wrongs And so he raises his voice again This is a time to celebrate who we are And the light that shines so bright This is a time to dedicate ourselves And open up our hearts and minds again This is a time Let's not waste another moment Not another day We got the world in our hands Like a seed in the sand You gotta raise your hand Take a stand Like a boy to a man There ain't no easy road But we can share the new day Ignite, unite, invite, rewrite, delight Hold hands, make plans, hold tight, expand What you thought you would demand And understand it's in the palm of your hand This is a time to celebrate who we are And the light that shines so bright This is a time to dedicate ourselves And open up our hearts and minds again This is a time Let's not waste another moment Not another day We got the world in our hands Like a seed in the sand You gotta raise your hand Take a stand Like a boy to a man
