I wanna wake up in the morning I realize that everything's true I never thought that one day I'll be Waking up just next to you Not even in my wildest dreams but Now my dream is living on Sometimes reality is better Than every movie, every song Because it came without a warning There was no time to even prepare Out of the blue, just like a lightning It feels like love's been always there As if I found my precious soulmate Like I've known you all my life It feels so right, feels so easy It feels like it's destiny Oh-oh-oh Never ever felt quite so easy Oh-oh-oh I wanna always be loved by you And with you forever I never ever felt quite so easy This is the only love today And the only love today This only happens in romantic movies That's what I thought in my younger years Then I saw you, a perfect stranger Smiling at me from ear to ear My heart went up like a rumbling rocket Although I tried not to show Springtime started then and there The very moment you said hello Oh yeah, hello is everything I can remember The rest is blurred like it's hidden in days But I will carry with me forever The beauty of your smiling face As if I found my precious soulmate Like I've known you all my life It feels so right, feels so easy It feels like it's destiny Oh-oh-oh Never ever felt quite so easy Oh-oh-oh I wanna always be loved by you And you forever I never ever felt quite so easy This is the only love today Ever, love, this way Ever, you're the best Ever, ever happened to me Oh-oh-oh Never wanted to know It feels like it's destiny Oh-oh-oh Never ever felt quite so easy Oh-oh-oh I wanna always be loved by you And you always been the one for you I never ever felt quite so easy This is the only love today The only love today Never ever felt quite so easy
