I see a storm is coming, I can smell the rain. Gotta look for shelter, save my own hide. I see a storm is coming, the wind is getting up.

Can't stay no longer, must leave you now. It must have been to meet you, I've challenged my luck. Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose.

I lost my game, there's a remedy. I gotta take it right, come on. Oh, I see the sign, something's brewing.

Can't tell what it is, but I feel the change. Oh, I see the sign, it won't be long. Rather sooner than later, I gotta make it right.

It must have been to meet you, I've challenged my luck. Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose. I lost my game, there's a remedy.

I gotta take it right, come on. Ready or not, the storm is coming. Ready or not, my heart will change.

Ready or not, I keep on fighting. Oh, ready or not, that's all I know. It must have been to meet you, I've challenged my luck.

Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose. I lost my game, there's a remedy. It must have been to meet you, I've challenged my luck.

Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose. I lost my game, there's a remedy. I gotta take it right, come on.

Oh, I gotta take it right, come on.
