You softly whisper, you've been dreaming of me Oh, you're closer while I'm dancing with you I feel your passion, feel your heat on me No one ever, ever made me in the way you do Could have been, that it's you I'm looking for You, you're the one that makes my dream come true Every time I look into your eyes I start to tremble all inside and lose my mind Every time you lift a kiss in mine Want to feel your soul, want to taste your desire So glad I found you, want you all of my life Everybody wants me, you say I'm surprised You like me but you gotta pass for tonight I'm so crazy about you baby, I just realized Could have been, that it's you I'm looking for You, you're the one that makes my dream come true Every time I look into your eyes I start to tremble all inside and lose my mind Every time you lift a kiss in mine Want to feel your soul, want to taste your desire Now that you walked into my life And it feels so strong, I finally can take control of me So take control of me So take control of me Could have been, that it's you I'm looking for You, you're the one that makes my dream come true Every time I look into your eyes I start to tremble all inside and lose my mind Every time you lift a kiss in mine Want to feel your soul, want to taste your desire Every time I look into your eyes I start to tremble all inside and lose my mind Every time you lift a kiss in mine You lift a kiss in mine
