

NiRo UW-Cheek-To-Cheek

This story began once upon a time, who would've ever thought it would be so fine. I can still recall dreams like yesterday, paradise was just a mile away. You are still the same boy you used to be for me, there is nothing that has really changed.

Even if the hands of time have drawn some lines on your face. There's no better way to spend our time, cheek to cheek and side by side. When you've got two hearts you can't divide, life becomes an endless ride.

Baby I want your love, baby I need your love. I will never find someone like you. Baby I want your love, baby I need your love.

Time has flown much faster than we could know, and we both have grown up to be made of love. There are many reasons why I love you so, you are young at heart and rising in your soul. You are still the same boy you used to be for me, there is nothing that has really changed.

Even if the hands of time have drawn some lines on your face. There's no better way to spend our time, cheek to cheek and side by side. When you've got two hearts you can't divide, life becomes an endless ride.

Baby I want your love, baby I need your love. I will never find someone like you. Baby I want your love, baby I need your love.

Sometimes I think it's not that we found love, but just the other way around. We did not look out for it, love came around and said that we would find. There's no better way to spend our time, cheek to cheek and side by side.

When you've got two hearts you can't divide, life becomes an endless ride. Baby I want your love, baby I need your love.
