

NiRo HB-Everything-I-Need

Where I am just walking around Trying to find a small bird That leads me out of this town I'm not alone, but no one's here The lights aren't so bright So I cannot see The skylight, the stars above my head Nothing leads me, needs someone to lead me The light slowly disappears But I'm still blinded I try to close my eyes To be focused on a bird song I'm not alone, but no one's here The lights aren't so bright So I cannot see The skylight, the stars above my head Nothing leads me, needs someone to lead me Shed a white light, bright light Till we live in a world full of hate This is my hope, I see Pass through all these lights Till we live in a city full of dark lights This is my hope, I see